Part I of the Teamwork/Organizational Colloquium featured a Flex Day presentation from Superintendent-President Eloy Oakley. Now join us for a round table discussion of the college’s organization, procedures, and attempts to promote an atmosphere of teamwork.

Expected Topics to be Examined:
How do new ideas move through our college processes?
What are the roles of different college constituencies in our governance system?
How effectively is information shared and disseminated on campus?
How do we develop a stronger sense of community?

Moderator: David Morse
Panelists: President Oakley and colleagues from across campus

Faculty and Staff are encouraged to attend.
Release time is available to Classified employees who first secure approval from their supervisor to attend this event.

Refreshments will be served.
